

“The Explorers” Easy Read Visual Story

About the Performance

“The Explorers” is a contemporary dance performance by FRONTLINEdance.

Contemporary dance to us is self-expression, storytelling, and freedom.

FRONTLINEdance creates work with disabled and non-disabled dancers together.

Three dancers perform in “The Explorers”.

The dancers wear backpack’s and binoculars.

The dancers are dressed in yellow and green.

The performance is performed in libraries, hospitals and outdoors.

Accesible

“The Explorers” is an inclusive show. It is relaxed, accessible and fun!

It is a multi-sensory, wondrous adventure, where you help to bring to life, two stories with dance, colour, sound and teamwork!

The performance lasts for 35 minutes.

Please let us know if the music is too loud. We can turn it down.

	You can come and go from the show. If you leave, it is ok to come back.
	During the show you can ask for help. Look out for the people wearing these logos.
	The dancers enjoy it when you clap.

Part 1: Searching...

Charlotte and Katie have lost Dave! They need your help to find him.

Dave wants to surprise Charlotte & Katie so he hides... ssshhh!

Katie and Charlotte dance together and look for Dave with their binoculars.

They find Dave and dance together.

The dance is about friendship.

Dave has a special jacket in his backpack which he gives to Charlotte to wear.

Katie wants to dance with the jacket too. She pretends to be cross!

When the dance ends the dancers say hello to you!

Part 2: Join the team!

The dancers ask you to join the adventure!

The dancers love it when you join in.

We all get our bodies ready to move and explore!

Then off we go!

We look for a book about a rabbit.

Part 3: Rabbityness by Jo Empson

This part of the show is about the book Rabbityness by Jo Empson.

The dancers sit down and read the story. You can sit with them if you want to.

Whilst reading the story, the dancers remember items that they have found and put in their backpacks.

They share the items with you to explore whilst reading the story.

Katie then remembers another book about colours that she wants to share with you.

Part 4: My Many Coloured Days by Doctor Seuss

This part of the show is about the book My Many Coloured Days by Doctor Seuss

Dave finds the book with your help!

Charlotte and Katie dance with the book.

The dance finishes and it is time for you to join in again!

The dancers find more items in their backpacks for you to explore!

Part 5: Goodbye

Dave comforts Katie who doesn't want to say goodbye.

They dance a goodbye dance.

YAY!

The dancers come back and take a bow.

You can clap if you want to.

You can join them too!

The End.
